

Willamette River Boaters Near I-5 Bridge Should Stay North

Boaters are cautioned to watch for construction on the Willamette River Interstate 5 bridge, which will be continuing through December 2012.

Those using the river in this area should avoid the channel near the south bank. Always use the north bank channel.

Signs posted at ramps and in the river will direct you to the safest channel. For your safety, please obey the signs.

For the more information, please visit:
www.Willamettebridge.org
www.twitter.com \(Username: OregonDOT\)
www.Keepusmoving.com